

Western Mindanao State University
College of Computing Studies
DEPARTMENT OF COMPUTER SCIENCE

VAWC Insights: Barangay VAWC Desk Portal

An Extension Project in Collaboration with the Department of Interior and Local Government Region IX (DILG-IX)
Deployment and User Training
DILG-IX, Pagadian City
December 2, 2024

#	Complete Name (Last Name, First Name, MI)	Designation	Agency	Email Address	Contact No	Signature
1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15

VAWC Insights: Barangay VAWC Desk Portal

An Extension Project in Collaboration with the Department of Interior and Local Government Region IX

Project Name: VAWC Desk Portal

Test Phase: Alpha Test

Version: 1.0 12-2-2024

Test Date: I Test Case ID: 2024-001

#	Title	Description	Preconditions	Test Steps	Expected Result	Actual Result	Pass/Fail	Bug Description/Comments
TC_VAWC_03	View submitted VAWC complaint by Barangay/LGU	Test if the barangay or LGU can view the recently reported incident	The system is set up with a view of the most recently submitted cases.	1. A report is submitted by a victim/resident (from Test Case 1) 2. Verify that the LGU/barangay receives the submitted report within the portal	LGU/barangay receives the submitted VAWC complaint with full details of the report (victim, type of violence, etc.)
TC_VAWC_04	Barangay/LGU updates the VAWC cases	Test if the barangay/LGU can update the reported VAWC case based on the actions taken	A report has been received by the barangay/LGU (from Test Case 1 or 2)	1. Barangay/LGU logs into the portal 2. Navigate to the "Reports" section 3. Open the report received 4. Provide a response (e.g., assigning an officer, sending help, etc.) 5. Log the action taken in the system	The response is recorded in the system, and the action is logged.

Additional Comments:

Tested By

Signature over printed name

VAWC Insights: Barangay VAWC Desk Portal

An Extension Project in Collaboration with the Department of Interior and Local Government Region IX

Project Name: VAWC Desk Portal      Test Phase: Alpha Test      Version: 1.0 12-2-2024      Test Date: I Test Case ID: 2024-001

#	Title	Description	Preconditions	Test Steps	Expected Result	Actual Result	Pass/Fail	Bug Description/Comments
TC_VAWC_07	Complainant/ Victim can track status of the case reported.	Test if the complainant or the victim who submitted VAWC report can check the status	The user has access to his/her email.	1. On the landing page, click the track case. 2. Type the email of the person who reported the case. 3. Check email for the status of the case.	The status of the report was successfully sent to the email.
TC_VAWC_08	Log in	Test if the log in module works with the two-factor authentication.	The user has an active account.	1. Log in to the portal with the email and password. 2. Check email for the one-time password 3. Type the one-time password on the portal	The user is logged in successfully and can access the modules based on the user role.

Additional Comments:

Tested By

Signature over printed name

VAWC Insights: Barangay VAWC Desk Portal

An Extension Project in Collaboration with the Department of Interior and Local Government Region IX

Project Name: VAWC Desk Portal      Test Phase: Alpha Test      Version: 1.0 12-2-2024      Test Date: De Test Case ID: 2024-001

#	Title	Description	Preconditions	Test Steps	Expected Result	Actual Result	Pass/ Fail	Bug Description/Comments
TC_VAWC_05	Barangay/LGU adds case	Test if the barangay women's desk can add a case for walk-in complaints	The complainant filed the VAWC case through the barangay's Women's Desk	1. Log into the portal as a barangay Women's Desk 2. Navigate to the "Reports" then cases section 3. Clicks the +Add Case button 4. Select the type of case and type of service then click Add Case button. 5. On the Case view, select the recently created case and click the View button. 6. Input the data for the victim, perpetrator, case and other details, then click the save button	The case information which includes the information about the victim, perpetrator and other case details.
TC_VAWC_06	Barangay/LGU views dashboard	Test if the barangay women's desk can view the dashboard.	The user is logged in as admin of the Barangay Women's Desk user.	1. Log into the portal as a victim or reporter 2. Navigate to the "Dashboard" section 3. View summary statistics and charts. 4. Filter records of cases by RA violation, Gender or Age	The dashboard displayed correct values, charts and filtered records

Additional Comments:

Tested By

Signature over printed name

VAWC Insights: Barangay VAWC Desk Portal

An Extension Project in Collaboration with the Department of Interior and Local Government Region IX

Project Name: VAWC Desk Portal      Test Phase: Alpha Test      Version: 1.0 12-2-2024      Test Date: I Test Case ID: 2024-001

#	Title	Description	Preconditions	Test Steps	Expected Result	Actual Result	Pass/Fail	Bug Description/Comments
TC_VAWC_01	Reporting a Violence	Test if a victim can successfully report a violence incident via the portal	User is registered in the system, logged in, and on the report page	1. Log in to the VAWC Desk Portal 2. Navigate to the "Report a Violence, I am a victim" section 3. Fill in the required fields (victim information, type of violence, description, etc.)	The report is successfully submitted and saved to the system. A notification is sent to the barangay LGU and email notification to the
TC_VAWC_02	Reporting a Violence	Test if a concerned citizen/resident can successfully report a violence incident via the portal	User is registered in the system, logged in, and on the report page	1. Log in to the VAWC Desk Portal 2. Navigate to the "Report a Violence, I am reporting for a victim" section 3. Fill in the required fields (victim information, type of violence, description, etc.)	The report is successfully submitted and saved to the system. A notification is sent to the barangay LGU and email notification to the

Additional Comments:

Tested By

Signature over printed name